

anyone on the electoral register, aged between 18 and 70, as a juror. There may, therefore, be occasions where students are called for jury service.

There is an expectation that a juror will serve at the time they have been summoned. However, if jury service is likely to interfere ith your study or assessment(s), you may be able to seek a deferral by contacting the Jury Central Summoning Bureau and explaining the impact on y