Title: German 1

Course duration: 20 weekly sessions of two hours

Minimum entry requirements: The course is designed strictly for beginners with no knowledge of the language.

Commitment to:

attend at least 70% of the classes

· study outside the classroom for at least two hours per week complete homework

buy the course book

Course aims: To enable students to:

to reach level A1 of the Common European Framework to cope with a selection of basic and predictable everyday life situations in a target language speaking environment.

to establish the skills required for further study of German. the target la

 demonstrate an insight into the speaking countries

 understand the basic structures language, in a limited context

- obtain information and understand spoken messages in a limited context
- deal orally with a limited selection of basic and predictable activities
- to obtain information from essential signs and notices
- · write simple messages, emails, formal and informal letters

Main topics of study: Selected topics from a variety of areas.

Coursecontent: Selected topics from a variety of areas, e.g. greetings, introducing yourself (e.g. nationality, occupation); giving your phone number; introducing other people; talking about family and friends, ordering food and drinks and offering them to other, expressing likes and dislikes; talking about yesterday, describing future plans, cultural and business etiquette.

Assessment: Students are given the opportunity to complete a test and portfolio in order to obtain a certificate.

Brunel Certificate of achievement:

On successful completion of the progress test, portaso2

of) objects set J