Brunel

We're delighted you're thinking about studying at Brunel University London.

Anthropology is the study of people and their societies. Our lecturers have put together the following information to help you prepare for your course. This will give you a snapshot of the materials and reading list you'll be using. You'll get a full breakdown of information before you enrol.

On our website you can also find out more about your modules and chat to a current student.

If you have any more questions please get in touch

We look forward to welcoming you to Brunel.

Sample lecture/coursework questions

1. Why do we give gifts?
2. Is the nuclear family universal?
3. How many ways of subsistence patterns can you list?
4. Is culture vs nature the same as male vs female?
5. What do you think 'rites of passage' means?
